DON'T SHOOT THE MESSENGER

DRAFT PROPOSAL - please edit for our discussion at meetings - add your thoughts and comments. We will need a second to discuss it – it doesn't mean you support it. click here to send a SECOND to our staff

AUSTIN (KXAN) — Assistant City Manager Anthony Snipes has been placed on administrative leave pending an investigation into a controversial training session titled "Women Leading in Local Government." The training was in response to the newly elected 10-1 council, which is made up of mostly women.

After his presentation, Dr. Miya Burt-Stewart, a business development consultant, spoke to the audience. She touched on the "Men are from Mars; Women are from Venus" philosophy, stating the author of the popular book's assertion that men act on facts and women act on emotions is true.

We don't punish for ideas

In the councils childish emotional outburst they proved the vary preposition that had been warned against. They punished Assistant City Manager Anthony Snipes for expressing ideas contrary to the P.C. (Politically Correct) party line.

PROPOSAL:

That Assistant City Manager Anthony Snipes be restored to his previous position with back pay.
